Public Input

Dolson reported that he was among a group of engineers at John Deere who are independently organizing to offer outreach to local students in the areas of robotics and engineering. He asked for direction on video recording some of the hands-on workshops they hope to hold to reach more students by playing the videos in classrooms. JTigges, RTigges, Barefoot, and Nowack provided various suggestions.

City Clerk Visit

Nowack noted that City Clerk Kevin Firnstahl is scheduled for the May 3, 2017, meeting. This comes in response to last month's request to have him address the Commission about rules and procedures relating to activities of boards and commissions.

Mediacom Cable Report

Barefoot reported on some UPS equipment failures following a recent power outage at the Mediacom building. He also said that there has been a request from a local public school teacher about possibly recording some video in the Mediacom public access studio and that he will be contacting the DCSD access channel producers about this.

Cable TV Report

Nowack reported that he and Video Producer Erich Moeller are getting more comfortable using the new HD equipment for broadcasting City Council meetings. At last night's meeting he made some recordings of individual cameras for use in the upcoming Cable budget presentation. He also provided an update on recent ICMA-related programming and upcoming productions. He noted that five new From the Archives programs will premiere in calendar 2017 and the same number will premiere in 2018. He hopes to have a funding request for new editing computers on the February agenda. Lastly, he noted the recent passing of former Cable TV staff person Doug McCallum.

Adjournment

Upon a motion by RTigges, seconded by Dolson, the meeting was adjourned at 4:23 p.m.
