

LED light changes color for each container recorded as collected.

RFID tag installed on City-owned receptacles in aggregate study area
(tipper carts and recycling bins)

Buttons are used for recording exceptions when collecting primary and extra containers and items.

